Satisfy the conditions of this offer

To satisfy the conditions of this offer, you must:

Provide evidence that you meet the English language requirements of the University. See <https://study.unimelb.edu.au/how-to-apply/english-language-requirements> for further information.

Provide evidence of successful completion of your current program with a minimum of 65 overall.

To find out how to provide this evidence please view instructions to upload documents. Once you have met the conditions set out above, the University will send you an unconditional offer letter, which will include instructions on how to accept your offer.

It is also important to note that if you undertake any further study between now and accepting your offer you must declare it because your offer will need to be reassessed based on the additional study.

If you do not declare the further study and it is subsequently discovered via any means, including an advanced standing application, your application will be reassessed based on that study which could result in your offer being withdrawn and enrolment cancelled.

Note that this offer will lapse on 28 June 2021 so you must respond before then. You can register your intention to accept or decline this offer via the student portal or the application portal. If you wish to change this application to a later commencement date, please apply to defer.

Accommodation at Melbourne

The Melbourne Accommodation Program provides a range of accommodation options for University of Melbourne students and accommodation is guaranteed for undergraduate students. Students will enjoy access to a range of high-quality, secure, student accommodation within walking distance of the Parkville campus.

To register and for more details, refer to the Melbourne Accommodation Program website.

The offer does not include the cost of the accommodation.

Additional information

The commencement date above refers to the start of classes. New students should plan to be in Melbourne for the start of their orientation activities. Essential information will be provided at these sessions and attendance may be compulsory. For further details about the orientation activities of your faculty please go to <https://orientation.unimelb.edu.au>.

If you have not received an outcome for a course that you have listed as a higher preference then rest assured that your application is still under consideration and you do not need to take further action. This offer only relates to the course listed above.

This is an offer for the Master of Information Technology (Cyber Security) 200 point program. The length of course is 2 years full-time, depending on subject availability.

We encourage you to course plan by visiting the following link for your course structure: <https://handbook.unimelb.edu.au/view/current/MC-IT> and further assistance is available via Stop1 <http://students.unimelb.edu.au/admin/course-planning>.

There will be orientation sessions at Melbourne School of Engineering in the week prior to commencement of classes. Closer to the commencement of your course further information will be sent to you and will be available from the website at:

<https://eng.unimelb.edu.au/students/coursework/study-resources/orientation>.

Selection appeals and reviews

In accordance with the University's Selection and Admission Policy \(MPF1295\) any applicant who has concerns over a selection decision may request a formal review. If dissatisfied with the outcome of the review the applicant may lodge an appeal. Further details about this process are available online.

If you have not received an outcome for a course that you have listed as a higher preference then rest assured that your application is still under consideration and you do not need to take further action. This offer only relates to the course listed above.
